STEROLS & STEROLINS CHOLESTEROL

It is a very common today to be diagnosed with high cholesterol and that it must be lowered or you may face serious negative consequences. For those who have been diagnosed with high cholesterol, especially those on cholesterol lowering drugs, there is a natural alternative or adjunctive supplement that works effectively without the side effects or the risk of prescription drugs.

In conventional therapy statin drugs are the current favored treatment for elevated cholesterol. Statin drugs reduce the production of cholesterol in your body by blocking the activity of an enzyme in the liver that is required for cholesterol production. This process may cause side effects, and depletes the bodies Co enzyme Q10 reserves. Phytosterols do not affect levels, yet may be used with statins if required. This is especially ideal for reducing the side effects of high dose of statins.

Most medical doctors accept that LDL cholesterol should be as low as possible, but sometimes this message can be over-simplified and often doctors will look at total cholesterol (instead of the ratio between LDL and HDL) which can lead to misleading results.

Powder or lipid matrix?

Previous research has revealed that for optimal efficacy, supplemented phytosterols must be dissolved in a fat (lipid) matrix for the reduction of cholesterol. Phytosterols are lipophilic and are best transported and absorbed in a lipid base. If supplemented in a non-fat matrix, phytosterols may not fully disperse or solubilize in the gut digesta before absorption, limiting their ability to reduce cholesterol absorption.

Phytosterol (Sterols & Sterolins Cholesterol) efficacy is optimized by the presence of dietary fat for at least two reasons. First, plant sterols need to be solubilized in triglyceride to suspend them and allow them to disperse within the GI tract. Denke et al (AJCN 95) showed that plant sterols given in a compressed capsule fail to show efficacy, presumably as they cannot be dispersed. Second, plant sterols work by competing against the absorption of cholesterol at the micellar level in the small intestine. Micelle formation requires the presence of fat... thus a good healthy fat is needed for plant sterols to be work well.

New Roots Herbal combines phytosterols with certified organic flax seed oil, an optimal choice for providing the ideal 2:1 ratio of lipids and phytosterols for maximum cholesterol reduction.

Intelligent Weight Loss

Slimmer System

Slimmer System is the most intelligent weight loss systems available. Including it's weight loss advantages, Slimmer System has 525mg of EGCG (Epigallocatechin,gallate), supplied from 700mg of a 75% extract of green tea.

This isolate has numerous health benefits and is the most potent oligomeric proanthocyanidin antioxidant.

Research using laboratory cell cultures shows that EGCG helps kill leukemia, breast, lung, mouth, stomach and prostate cancer cells by interrupting the communication signals forcing them to self destruct (apoptosis).

Population-based and clinical studies also indicate that the antioxidant properties of green tea may help prevent atherosclerosis, particularly coronary artery disease. According to Japanese research, green tea reduces the levels of LDL or 'bad' blood cholesterol, thereby reducing the risk of coronary heart disease. European studies have found that regular consumption of tea protects against heart disease, with one study documenting that the risk was 36 per cent lower for tea drinkers. It is believed that the polyphenols in tea help prevent arthrosclerosis.

BLOOD SUGAR BALANCE

Why does Blood Sugar Balance have cinnamon?

A human study published in Diabetes Care looked at 60 people with type 2 diabetes, 30 men and 30 women with an average age of 52. They were divided into 6 groups: groups 1, 2, and 3 consumed 1, 3, or 6 g of cinnamon daily, respectively, and groups 4, 5, and 6 were given placebo capsules corresponding to the number of capsules consumed for the three levels of cinnamon.

After 40 days, all three levels of cinnamon intake reduced fasting blood glucose ranging from 18 to 29%, triglycerides 23 to 30%, LDL cholesterol 7 to 27%, and total cholesterol 12-26%.

The researchers concluded that "The results of this study... suggest that the inclusion of cinnamon in the diet of people with type 2 diabetes will reduce risk factors associated with diabetes & cardiovascular diseases."

The active insulin-enhancing compounds in cinnamon are found in the water soluble portion and not the oil. Not only have they been found to increase glucose metabolism by up to 20-fold, but they also have antioxidant activity.

PLANT DIGESTIVE ENZYMES

There are three types of enzymes. Our bodies naturally produce two types, digestive and metabolic enzymes as they are needed, while food enzymes can only be consumed orally.

Metabolic Enzymes speed up the chemical reaction within the cells for detoxification and energy production. They enable us to see, hear, feel, move and think. Every organ, every tissue, and all 100 trillion cells in our body depend upon the reaction of metabolic enzymes and their energy factor. Metabolic enzymes are produced by every living cell. However, the liver, pancreas, gallbladder and other organs play a vital role in their production.

Digestive Enzymes are secreted along the digestive tract to break food down into nutrients and waste. This allows nutrients to be absorbed into the blood stream and the waste to be discarded. Human digestive enzymes include ptyalin, pepsin, trypsin, lipase, protease, and amylase. The body does not make cellulase, an enzyme necessary for proper digestion of fiber, so it must be introduced through the raw foods we eat.

Food Enzymes are introduced to the body through the raw foods we eat and through consumption of supplemental enzyme fortifiers. Raw foods naturally contain enzymes, providing a source of digestive enzymes when ingested. However, raw food manifests only enough enzymes to digest that particular food, not enough to have any support systemically. The cooking and processing of food destroys all of its enzymes. Since most of the foods we eat are cooked or processed in some way and since the raw foods we do eat contain only enough enzymes to process that particular food, our bodies must produce the majority of the digestive enzymes we require. For these reasons it is recommended that we supplement our diet with enzymes.

New Roots Herbal's Plant Digestive Enzymes contain all the essential enzymes required to digest food categories including all proteins, carbohydrates, sugars, fats, oils, fibers, legumes, pectins and starches.

PH^FD DOUBLE ENTERIC COATED

Probiotic preparations must reach the intestines to deliver a therapeutic affect. In order to do so, they have to pass through the complete gastrointestinal tract alive. Evaluation of their resistance to stomach acidity and biliary salts are pertinent criteria for probiotic selection and most won't survive. These tests have been performed in vitro. Results show that over 99% of the bacteria may be destroyed in the stomach if unprotected.

New Roots Herbal PH^FD double enteric coating is the most advanced in the world. Choosing probiotic strains on select criteria and combining them with advanced water based PH^FD coated capsules shields the probiotics from the stomach's harsh conditions. PH^FD special enteric coating allows the capsule to stay protected in the stomach and thus allows probiotics to remain alive. This double coating is designed to open only at a ph level of 5 - 5.5, the levels found in the G.I. track after entering the intestines. PH^FD coating has other benefits as well; this double enteric coating technology is designed to dissolve slowly in order not to shock and destroy the probiotics. This shock proof technology is the latest in innovation from New Roots Herbal to provide the most advanced perceivable therapeutic results in a probiotic.

COLOSTRUM

Scientific studies report that colostrum rebuilds the immune system, destroys viruses, bacteria and fungi, accelerates healing of all body tissue, helps lose weight, burns fat, increases bone and lean muscle mass and slows down and even reverses aging.

Colostrum also has a therapeutic role with AIDS, cancer, heart disease, diabetes, autoimmune diseases, allergies, herpes, bacterial, viral and parasitic infections, gingivitis, colds, the flu and much more. Colostrum has antioxidant properties, anti-inflammatory benefits, and is a source of many vitamins, minerals, enzymes and amino acids.

New Roots Formulates Colostrum with 2 Important Ingredients:

Probiotics

Our special proprietary blend with over 1.2 billion cells of L. Bifidus, L. Acidophilus, L. Plantarum, L. Casei, Acidophilus 8781, (Bifido Longum, Infantis, and breve), L. Thermophilus, and L. Bulgaricus is formulated to ensure a balance of the microflora ecosystem within the gastro intestinal tract. This in turn helps the body to absorb more of the benefits of colostrum, and results in a stronger and healthier immune system.

F.O.S. (fructo-oligosaccharides):

This is a source of nutrition for microflora in the gastrointestinal tract, helping them to grow and reproduce, as well as inhibiting the growth of pathogenic microorganisms and other environmental factors which adversely affect these organisms. Colostrum is the first produced milk that a mammal provides for its newborn for the first 24-48 hours to develop the newborns autoimmune system.

New Roots Herbal's Colostrum is 100% pure bovine colostrum, low heat processed to ensure potency, providing immunoglobulins A, D, E, G and M. Colostrum is an immune system modulator containing 30% IgG content standardized.

PURGE PARASITIS KIT

Parasites are organisms that depend on other organisms to survive while producing toxic waste inside our bodies, and competing with our cells for nutrients.

The different size of parasites may vary from microscopic amoebas to large intestinal worms. Others include single-celled protozoa and multi-celled parasites like worms, flukes, and even insects. Some other small parasitic creatures are called filaria, richettsias and spirochettes. Fungi and yeasts are plant forms of parasites. Scientists have identified over 100 different types of parasites with over 340 species of helminthes alone, found in humans who can be infected by more than one type at a time.

Safely eliminating parasites:

Our twelve powerful traditional anti-parasitic herbs are: Black Walnut Hulls and Leaves, Wormwood, Garlic, Cloves, Grapefruit Seed Extract, Barberry Bark, Golden Seal Root, Ginger, Aloe, Quassia, Oregon Grape Root and Sage can rid us of most or all of the different parasites we may have. The herbs have no major side effects and don't interact with drugs.

Purge Parasitis Kit consists of four products, and they must be used together as a single treatment. This special combination will kill adults, developmental stage and the eggs of at least 100 types of parasites. Only if you use them together will you rid yourself of parasites.
